Influence Texas

Finally: Campaign finance, lobbying, and voting records all in one app

Influence Texas puts Texas state lawmakers' campaign finance records and lobbying reports next to their legislative voting records, so citizens, nonprofits, and advocates can track the influence of money in politics. By putting these public records into a usable, searchable database in a free app, Influence Texas empowers taxpayers to bypass biased news sources and do their own reporting.

Use Influence Texas to see funding profiles for politicians and top donors and PACs. Do more with Influence Texas PRO.

What We Do

Politics demystified.

Wonder who's funding whom? Or who your politician is really working for?

If you've ever tried looking for Texas campaign finance reports using the Texas Ethics Commission website, chances are you didn't get very far. You probably had questions like: Which politicians are we talking about here? What's up with all the "filer" types? Why can't I track donations across multiple election cycles? Why are there so many PACs? Who do they support? and Can I search by donor?

Q

Enter Influence Texas.

Whether you're a policy wonk or a legislative notice, you can use Influence Texas to easily figure out where the money is coming from and which direction it's flowing. We've made a simple directory of statewide elected officials that will fit in the palm of your hand. You can see who funded a politician — and who funded the funders who funded that politician.

You can use Influence Texas to search the most recent election cycle for:

- each politician's top donors — including individuals and PACs
- each top individual donor's profile information — including employer and industry
- each top PAC's profile information — including individuals and companies who contribute
- each top individual donor's funding history
- each top PAC's funding history

If you work for a non-profit or an advocacy organization, you'll benefit from upgrading to Influence Texas PRO so you can search for:
